Changes to Excel file format on the ABS website

In line with updating to more recent technology formats, the ABS will progressively transition to releasing Excel files (e.g. timeseries spreadsheets) in .xlsx format. While this change will improve usability, it may also require changes to automated macros or similar programs that call on the current .xls format.

For Labour Account spreadsheets, this change will take effect from the December quarter 2021, due for release on 9 March 2022. Previously released data will not change.

Changes will be reflected in other labour statistics from the following dates:

- Characteristics of Employment, to be released on 14 December 2021
- Employee Earnings, to be released on 14 December 2021
- Working arrangements, to be released on 14 December 2021
- Labour Force, Australia, to be released on 16 December 2021
- Job Vacancies, to be released on 12 January 2022
- Employee Earnings and Hours, to be released on 19 January 2022
- Average Weekly Earnings, to be released on 24 February 2022
- Industrial Disputes, to be released on 10 March 2022

Some labour statistics, such as Weekly Payroll Jobs and Wages in Australia, already publish data in .xlsx format.
